

The shared scaling rule uses one sample-level 99th-percentile magnitude scalar. In the Fourier arm, this scalar is computed after the centered FFT; the input is therefore FFT-derived from prepared images, not untouched scanner raw k-space.